

A look inside Cuenca, Ecuador

An introduction to the University of Cuenca & Latin American feminist perspectives

17. October 2022, 17:00 in A 702

Join the talk titled “The University of Cuenca and its links to the community/La Universidad de Cuenca y sus vinculos con la comunidad” by our esteemed guest Dr. Maria Augusta Hermida Palacios, rector of the University of Cuenca, in which she will present the University of Cuenca and its work and explain how it has evolved into an essential pillar in the development of the region. The talk will be followed by an interview with the speaker. Both the presentation and the discussion will be in English.

Afterward, we will be joined by sociologist Dr. Maria Falconí Abad for the presentation “El feminismo decolonial latinoamericano y del buen vivir” (Latin American decolonial feminism and Buen Vivir), which will introduce us to Latin American feminist perspectives. This talk will be held in Spanish, and German presentation slides and translations will be available.

Program

Introduction by Professor Anne Kraume, professor of romance literature and Deputy Equal Opportunities Representative at the University of Konstanz.
Presentation by rector Dr Maria Augusta Herminda Palacios followed by an interview.
Presentation by Dr Maria Falconí Abad followed by a discussion.

This event is organized by the Equal Opportunities Office in cooperation with the University of Cuenca in the context of the Baden-Württemberg Program Stipendium Plus.

